17th November 2011

Dear Parents/Carers

It appears likely that I will be unable to open the College on Wednesday 30th November due to proposed strike action by a number of unions on that day.

I am sorry for the inconvenience this is likely to cause. Could I ask you to ensure that all students taking public exams this year use the day to revise.

Of course if the strike is called off school will be open as usual.

Any update on this situation will be on the College website.

Yours sincerely

Ms S C Roberts
Headteacher
